A PLEASANT EVENT

Closing Banquet of the American Bar Association.

NEARLY 300 LEGAL LIGHTS PRESENT

Chauncey Depew Presided and Speeches Were Made by Lord Russell, Sir Frank Lockwood, President Woolworth and Others.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The social side of the annual convention of the American Bar association found a most auspicious close in the nineteenth annual banquet held last evening in the ball room of the Grand Union hotel and which was attended by 260 members of the legal fraternity. From 7 until 8 o'clock a reception was held in the reception room of the hotel where Lord Russell of Killowen, lord chief justice of England, Sir Frank Lockwood and Montague Crackanthorpe received the guests of the evening. At 8 o'clock Lord Russell and Hon. Chauncey M. Depew of New York, under the leadership of Francis Rawle of Philadelphia, treasurer of the bar association, proceeded to the ball room of the hotel where the banquet was served. At the guests' table, which was upon a platform slightly raised above the main floor at the end of the room, were seated Chauncey M. Depew, who presided; at his right sat Lord Russell and at his left United States supreme court judge Rufus Peckham and president of the Bar association James M. Woolworth of Omaha, Moorfield Storey of Boston, J. C. Carter of New York, Judge Cox of Syracuse, Judge Shipman of Hartford, Conn.; Sir Frank Lockwood and Montague Crackanthorpe of London, Wm. Allen Butler of New York, Cortland Parker of Newark and Judge Bartlett and Bourke Cockran of New York city.

Lord Russell Introduced.

At the close of the five-course dinner, which was over at 9 o'clock, Mr. Depew in a few well-chosen words introduced Lord Russell as the guest of the evening, and his lordship in a brief address proved that he was equally as well at home as an after-dinner speaker as upon the bench. The toast "The Bar Association" was responded to by president James M. Woolworth of Omaha in an able manner. Sir Frank Lockwood of England, the peer of after-dinner speakers of that country, was then introduced, and in an address which abounded with wit and humor captivated the guests. His toast was confined principally to the English bar, and most ably did the distinguished jurist respond to it. Moorfield Storey of Boston then spoke as the retiring president. To James M. Becker of Philadelphia was accorded the honor of speaking for the "Junior Bar," and the selection proved to have been an admirable one. J. C. Carter of New York city followed and spoke at some length, touching lightly upon his association with Lord Russell in the Behring sea matter. The last speaker of the evening was Bourke Cockran. Following the dinner Lady Russell, Lady Lockwood, Mrs. G. S. Batcheller, Mrs. Moorfield Storey and Mrs. John Foster were admitted to the banquet hall to enjoy the speeches.

Officers Elected.

The American Bar association at its closing session elected the following officers: President, James M. Woolworth, Omaha; secretary, John Hinkley, Baltimore; treasurer, Francis Rawle, Philadelphia; executive committee, Alfred Hemenway, Boston; Charles Claflin, St. Louis; William W. How, New Orleans. The association also elected a vice-president for every state in the union and members composing local councils in each state.

Were Subjected to Indignities.

London, Aug. 22.—T. P. O'Connor's Sun prints a column sensational account of the conditions of John Daly, the Irish political prisoner who has been released from Portland prison. It says: "Without forestalling what Daly will eventually divulge relative to his treatment, it is certain that Daly will be able to prove that the Irish dynamiters have been subjected to indignities and punishments that the vilest criminals in her majesty's prisons have escaped."

Col. Crofton's Case.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—A morning paper says: "The decision of the army returning board, so far as can be learned, seems to be in favor of Col. Crofton. It is tacitly admitted that he will be permitted to remain in the army, but no one about army headquarters in the Pullman building will say so plainly or consent to discuss the case."

Favor Baxter for Governor.

Elmira, N. Y., Aug. 22.—At the republican caucuses in Chemung county delegates were elected favorable to the candidacy of Col. Archie E. Baxter for governor. They are all for the state organization. The congressional delegates to be chosen at the Horseheads convention to-day will favor the nomination of William R. Compton of Horseheads for member of congress.

A GIGANTIC DEAL

Reported That the Western Union Has Gobbled Up the Bell Telephone.

Boston, Aug. 22.—The Boston Commercial Bulletin will say to-day regarding Western Union and Bell Telephone: "We understand upon the best authority that the Western Union Telegraph company controls at the present moment the American Bell Telephone company. The importance of such control will at once appear to every one who appreciates how the two have come into competition during recent years. The Western Union dividends had become threatened through the competition of the Bell company, and of the Postal Telegraph company, but it has long been a fully arranged plan for the Western Union company to secure control of the telephone company. The two together can probably make it very warm for the Postal Telegraph company or the final outcome of a combination of all three. J. Pierpont Morgan has been the largest purchaser of Bell Telephone stock at auction here, but the manner of purchase has been very cleverly concealed. Western Union stock has ruled weak on the New York Stock exchange during the past few days, but this weakness is thought to be part of the programme of those conducting this gigantic deal. The combination of these two concerns will mean an almost impregnable monopoly of both the telegraph and telephone business in the same hands."

FLOODS IN COLORADO.

Railroad Tracks Washed Away and Dams Broken.

Denver, Aug. 22.—A great amount of rain has fallen in Colorado the past three days, causing heavy floods in various localities. The principal damage has been railroad washouts, which have been quickly repaired and trains are running regularly on all lines. A flood came down Cherry creek through this city last night, but very little damage was done. At Sunset, Boulder county, a flood in Four-Mile creek washed away the town hall and part of a store. The placer mines are ruined for the season. The dams clear down to Boulder are washed away, and the county road destroyed. Without warning the almost dry creek-bed became a raging torrent. A wave at least six feet in height with a huge mass of trees, stumps and wreckage of all kinds, was the forerunner of what was coming. No loss of life is reported.

SATOLLI'S SUCCESSOR.

Consecration of Archbishop Martinelli Postponed to August 30.

London, Aug. 22.—The Rome representative of the United Associated Presses telegraphs that the consecration of the Rev. Sebastian Martinelli as Archbishop of Epheses has been fixed to take place on August 30, instead of August 23, as was previously announced. Shortly after his consecration the archbishop will proceed to the United States where he will succeed Cardinal Satolli as papal delegate. The ceremony of consecration will be performed by Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state.

Lost One Day's Sport.

Buzzards Bay, Mass., Aug. 22.—The engineer of the president's launch having been called away temporarily on account of the serious illness of his wife, the president was unable to take his usual fishing trip yesterday. The Cleveland children attended a children's lawn party at Marion during the afternoon.

The Bourgogne-Ailsa Collision.

Cherbourg, Aug. 22.—The maritime court has decided that the French steamship La Bourgogne is not to blame for the collision which occurred in a fog between herself and the Atlas line steamship Ailsa, both outward bound, near Fort Hamilton, New York bay, on February 29, which resulted in the sinking of the Ailsa.

Loss to the Treasury Gold Reserve.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The treasury gold reserve at the opening of business to-day stood at $103,238,617. Yesterday's withdrawals at New York were $91,700. During the past ten days the treasury has lost more than $2,000,000 in gold at San Francisco by redemption of legal tenders.

M'KINLEY A BUSY MAN

Prepares Several Speeches and Revises His Letter of Acceptance.

VISITORS CONTINUE TO ARRIVE

The Republican County Committee Approves a Statement Refuting the Truthfulness of Dispatches Sent Out by Silver Advocates.

Canton, O., Aug. 22.—A dispatch is being widely circulated in the western, central and southern states which contains an alleged letter from Canton purporting to have been written in answer to some one who asks if it is true that Canton democrats have formed a large Bryan silver club which contains many republican members. This dispatch, which has been given wide circulation, has caused more than two hundred letters to be sent to the republican committee inquiring if the statements in the letter are true. Some of these statements have come to Major McKinley. Last night one of the leading republicans of the county, Hiram Doll, made a statement which is officially approved and endorsed by the county committee, Mr. Doll says: "The silver club in Canton is composed of populists and democrats, and the leading democrats are not in it. The silver club at its organization was only claimed to have a membership of 200 or 250, upon the statements of its officials to the press associations. When it is remembered that Stark county has a population of nearly 100,000 and this city nearly 40,000, the magnitude of the club does not appear very great, comparatively speaking. A sound money, non-partisan railroad club in this city, composed largely of democrats as well as republicans signed 300 members the night of organization. The same night the McKinley marching club was organized with 1,000 members. A poll of the precinct that Major McKinley has lived in since his return from Columbus, which has always been a democratic precinct, out of 340 votes polled, shows McKinley 190 and Bryan 150, a republican gain over combined Bryan vote, including populists and democrats, of 74 in a single precinct."

Major McKinley's Busy Day.

Major McKinley put in a day of solid work yesterday. He looked over some of the revised proof sheets of his letter of acceptance and spent several hours in work upon speeches which he is to make to-day and Monday. Among Major McKinley's callers last evening was Maj. John B. Hayes of Meadville. One of the most interesting visitors Major McKinley has had for a long time is M. A. Meindors of New York city, who called last evening and made an eloquent and pathetic address on behalf of the Poles of the United States. He said his fellow countrymen were too poor to send a delegation to call upon Major McKinley and had empowered him to assure the republican candidate that the naturalized Poles in this country would cast their ballots for him.

SPEAKERS ASSIGNED.

Progress of the Work at Republican Headquarters at New York.

New York, Aug. 22.—Among the callers on Chairman Hanna at republican headquarters yesterday afternoon was Maj. J. Henry Gould, chairman of the Massachusetts republican state league. Major Gould spoke confidently of republican successes in New England. Gen. Clayton announced the following additional assignments: Senator John M. Thurston of Nebraska will speak in Burlington, Vt., August 25, and in Middlebury, August 27. He then goes to Syracuse for September 3, returning to New York for September 5. On September 7 he will speak in Baltimore. Hon. O. V. Tousley of Minnesota will go to Maine for one week beginning September 7, filling the engagements of Hon. William Allen Smith, who finds he will be unable to go to Maine at that time. Hon. Cyrus Bussey of Washington, ex-assistant secretary of the interior, will speak in Montpelier, Vt., August 27 and in Middlebury, August 28.

A Notorious Burglar.

New York, Aug. 22.—The man who lies wounded in the Long Island hospital in Brooklyn, and who is believed to be one of the men engaged in the postoffice burglary at Bedford Station, N. Y., has been identified by Detective Sergeant McCauley of this city as John Gilmore, alias Clare, alias George Price, one of the most notorious burglars in the country. He is a professional postoffice burglar, and Captain O'Brien is satisfied he is one of the men shot by young Adams.

War Correspondents' Memorial.

Gaithersburg, Md., Aug. 22.—The army correspondents' memorial, erected in Crampton's gap on the Antietam battlefield, will be dedicated on Oct. 16. Papers will be read by S. Cadwallader, Edmund C. Stedman, Junius Henri Browne, Judge James Seney of Maryland, George Alfred Townsend, and others.

BRYAN AT TIVOLI

Opening of the Democratic Campaign in the East To-day.

AN IMPORTANT SPEECH PROMISED

To Be Next in Interest, It Is Said, to the Madison Square Garden Address—Movements and Doings of the Democratic Nominee.

Upper Red Hook, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The Bryan and Sewall campaign will be opened in earnest this afternoon and evening at Tivoli, in this county, by Mr. Bryan. With the exception of his Madison square address the speech he will deliver, it is said, will be the most important of his utterances since his nomination. Mr. Bryan's visit to Maj. James W. Hinkley, chairman of the New York state democratic committee, will be made on Monday. As to the import of the meeting between Major Hinkley and himself, Mr. Bryan is non-communicative, but politicians hereabouts are attaching much importance to it. There is no doubt that Mr. Bryan and Mr. Hinkley will talk over the condition of affairs in the Empire state. That Mr. Bryan is confident that he will have the backing of the democratic leaders, is shown by his authorized statement with reference to Croker's endorsement of his candidacy, in which he said that he presumed nearly all the leaders would fall into line before the end of the campaign.

Rumor About Senator Hill.

It is likely that Mr. Bryan will spend Monday night at Winnisook lodge in the Catskills, where Major Hinkley is summering, and the two will have every opportunity to discuss the situation in detail. A rumor was brought here to-day that Senator Hill would attend the Bryan meeting at Albany Tuesday night, where the candidate will make a speech, but it could not be confirmed through Mr. Bryan or any other source. The fishing fever took possession of Mr. Bryan again yesterday, at least he said so. With Mr. and Mrs. Perrine, their daughter and some friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan drove out to Spring lake, a couple of miles from Upper Red Hook, to try their luck with the rod. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan rowed off to a secluded part of the lake, and while Mrs. Bryan fished her husband produced paper and pencil and devoted himself to writing. Neither he nor Mrs. Bryan would say what he was composing, but everybody knew it was his letter of acceptance.

Two Callers from New York City.

Mrs. Bryan caught a good sized pickerel and a two pound bass. That was too much for the candidate. He became so interested that he took a rod himself and managed to get a pickerel. He did no more writing and, after going ashore, made his first attempt at riding a bicycle, with disastrous results. The party reached Upper Red Hook at dark, tired and hungry. Mr. Bryan found congressman William Sulzer from New York city awaiting him. With Mr. Sulzer was Prof. Van Burr Denslow, who formerly occupied the chair of political economy at the Chicago university, and is now a writer on economic subjects. Mr. Sulzer and Prof. Denslow spent half an hour at Mr. Perrine's house with Mr. Bryan. Reticence was Mr. Sulzer's most marked characteristic when he came out. "I can't say a thing about it," said he; "I can't talk: you know if I could talk I would talk."

Bland Speaks at Laurel, Md.

Baltimore, Aug. 22.—Richard P. Bland was given a big reception at Laurel last evening, and the meeting which he subsequently addressed was largely attended. Mr. and Mrs. Bland arrived from Washington at 5 o'clock as the guest of Ernest P. Baldwin, auditor of the treasury. A public reception followed a dinner, and after that a torchlight procession was formed and marched through the streets of Laurel to Laurel grove, where a big crowd had preceded the marchers. President Baldwin of the Laurel democratic club called the meeting to order, and Mayor Phelps introduced Mr. Bland. He discussed unlimited coinage, eulogized Messrs. Bryan and Sewall and the Chicago platform, and admonished his hearers to beware of gold bug influences.

G. A. R. at Chautauqua.

Chautauqua, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Chautauqua's days are nearly ended for 1896, but the closing scenes are full of interest. The Chautauqua county veterans and G. A. R. held their sixteenth reunion and campfire here yesterday, and several hundred veterans were on the grounds. The annual campfire, around which the Chautauqua county veterans have gathered for many years, was lighted at 7:30 o'clock last evening on the platform of the amphitheatre. Speeches were made by Hon. Lewis Miller, president of the assembly; N. A. Flood, Hon. Wallace Bruce and Dr. H. H. Moore.

Woolen Mills Shut Down.

Rockville, Conn., Aug. 22.—Next week there will be only two woolen mills running in Stafford—Rawither Bros. on full time and the Mineral Spring Co. on half time.

PROF. ANDREE TO RETURN.

Too Late in the Season To Make His Proposed Balloon Trip to the Pole.

Christiania, Aug. 22.—Prof. A. S. Andree, according to reports received here, told Captain Svendrup of the Fram, who visited the aeronaut, that it was now too late to make the proposed ascent, and that he would probably soon return to Spitzbergen and make another effort to reach the North Pole in a balloon next April. The Fram, it is said, still has provisions capable of sustaining her crew in the Arctic regions for three years. Fearing that the crush of ice would wreck the ship, Captain Svendrup and the crew were obliged after Dr. Nansen left to remove all the sledges, provisions, ammunition and light furniture.

CHICKASAW NATION BURNING.

Fierce Forest Fires Sweeping Everything Before Them—Immigrants Hemmed In.

Denison, Tex., Aug. 22.—Destructive prairie fires are raging in the Chickasaw Nation. Dwellings, fences and hay have been destroyed, aggregating a loss of thousands of dollars. The creek bottoms are lined with hundreds of immigrant wagons that dare not travel owing to the scourge of fire. There is no water, and the fire has full sway on Rock creek. The fire got into the timber, burning a number of houses, and in some instances cattle were suffocated by the smoke. The fire has also got into the mountain timber, and it is sweeping everything before it.

THE TROUBLE IN CRETE.

Renewal of the Massacres Feared—Insurrection May Be Speedily Settled.

London, Aug. 22.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Athens says that there is reason to fear a renewal of the massacres in Crete by the insurgents. Turkish garrisons scattered throughout Crete are being withdrawn to the large towns. On the other hand, the French consul at Canea, it is announced, has been assured by the officials that the Cretan question will be speedily settled by the foreign ambassadors at Constantinople.

AN AMERICAN SHIP LOST.

The Governor Goodwin Wrecked on Princess Island.

Batavia, Island of Java, Aug. 22.—The American ship Governor Goodwin, Captain Oakes, which sailed from New York on April 29 for Chefoo, and which was spoken in latitude 2 north and longitude 29 west, has been lost on Princess island. All hands were saved. She was built in 1877 at East Boston and was of 1,414 tons. She hailed from Boston and was owned by Foster & Pray.

In Collision with an Iceberg.

Philadelphia, Aug. 22.—The British steamship Linda, Captain Horseley, from Hamburg, had a narrow escape from total destruction on the night of August 13, having, while proceeding in a dense fog through ice obstructions with engines going slow, grazed a tremendous iceberg. The obstruction was not seen by the careful lookout that was being kept until it was within a few feet of the bow, and its bearing were then just one point on the starboard bow. The engines were reversed and the wheel hove over hard to starboard just in time to prevent the vessel from hitting it head on. A glancing blow was struck, but no damage was done.

Cockran To Speak Twice a Week.

New York, Aug. 22.—It was announced at the headquars of the democratic honest money league that the Hon. W. Bourke Cockran had advised Major Byrne, president of the league, that he will speak twice a week during the campaign, wherever the league makes engagements for him. Requests for Mr. Cockran's services have already come from Maine, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Illinois and Indiana. Mr. Cockran will preside at the Indianapolis convention.

Nansen Meets the Fram.

Tromsoe, Norway, Aug. 22.—Dr. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, has arrived here on board Sir George Baden-Powell's auxiliary steam yacht Otaria. He was given a very enthusiastic reception. The Fram was in port, and as soon as the Otaria arrived Captain Svendrup and the members of the crew boarded the yacht, where an affecting meeting took place between Dr. Nansen and his comrades. Mutual congratulations were exchanged upon their escape from the perils of the Arctic seas.

Death of Father Flately.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Rev. Francis Flately of Malden, Mass., died of apoplexy at his boarding place in this village last night. He was 53 years of age and pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Malden.

Charges of Forgery Against Him.

Boston, Aug. 22.—Thomas J. Stuyvesant, formerly bookkeeper for Geo. Hoffecker, plumber, Roxbury, charged with forging his employer's signature to two checks for small amounts, has been arrested. There are said to be three other small forgeries for which he is responsible.

THE NATION'S GUEST

Plans for Entertainment of Li Hung Chang Announced.

DETACHMENT OF CAVALY TO MEET HIM

Will Be Received by the President at the Residence of Ex-Secretary Whitney in New York—Other Arrangements.

New York, Aug. 22.—The following programme respecting the visit of the Chinese viceroy, Li Hung Chang, has just been announced by Secretary of War Lamont: Earl Li Hung Chang, special ambassador from the Emperor of China, will arrive in New York by the steamship St. Louis on Friday, Aug. 28. Maj.-Gen. Thomas H. Ruger, United States army, commanding the department of the east, who has been designated by the president to act as his representative, will meet him on his arrival and escort him with a detachment of the Sixth regiment, United States cavalry, to the Waldorf hotel, where he will remain during his stay in New York as the guest of the nation. The state department will be represented by W. W. Rockhill, first assistant secretary of state. Gen. Ruger will attend the viceroy during his sojourn in this country and be in charge of all the arrangements pertaining to his visit. The president of the United States, who is to be in the city as the guest of ex-secretary of the navy William C. Whitney, will receive the special ambassador at Mr. Whitney's residence on the day following his arrival, the secretary of state, the secretary of the treasury, the secretary of war and possibly other members of the cabinet being present.

To Visit the East Only.

On Sunday a visit will be made to Gen. Grant's tomb at Riverside. Monday will be spent in a trip to the military academy at West Point by the U. S. S. Dolphin, and a sail under the Brooklyn bridge and up the East river. On Tuesday the party will be entertained at lunch by representative business men of New York, and later in the day an opportunity will be given Chinese residents of the city to meet the earl by arrangement with the Chinese consul. Wednesday will be occupied by a visit to Brooklyn on the invitation of the mayor of that city, and in the evening the viceroy will be tendered a review by the seventh regiment in its armory. On Thursday the party will go by the Pennsylvania railroad to Philadelphia, where suitable entertainment will be provided, and Friday and Saturday will be spent at Washington, and Sunday at Niagara falls, where the viceroy will be met by representatives of the Canadian government, who will escort him to Vancouver, from which port, he will sail for home.

Li Hung Chang Sails.

Southampton, Aug. 22.—The American line steamship St. Louis, which sailed for New York to-day, took an exceptional list of passengers. In addition to Li Hung Chang, who is described on the passenger list as "ambassador, senior guardian of the heir apparent, prime minister of state and earl of the first rank, with the title of Suy," Mr. and Mrs. Augustin Daly, Col. and Mrs. Eaton, Daniel Frohman and General Manager Pugh of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Continuous Mail Collecting.

Washington, Aug. 22.—A scheme for continuous mail collecting in cities will be put in operation in this city soon by Second Assistant Postmaster-General Neilson. A wagon specially constructed for the purpose is now being built at Hartford, Conn. It will be large enough to accommodate a carrier, independent of the assistant, who will do the driving and take the mail from the street boxes. This wagon will contain several apartments for "throwing" the mail.

The Spanish Budget.

Madrid, Aug. 22.—The senate has adopted the extraordinary budget as recommended by Gen. Azcirraga, minister of war, Admiral Beranger, minister of marine, and Senor A. Bosch, minister of public works. The liberal deputies declare that this is of the nature of a surprise vote and that they will therefore work with increasing energy and activity for the defeat of the government's money-raising proposition in the chamber of deputies.

Raines Law Receipts.

Albany, Aug. 22.—The amount of money collected under the Raines liquor law, according to returns from all counties up to August 15, is $19,180,—905.54. Of this amount New York city has contributed $4,905,189.02; Kings county, $2,124,504.41, and Erie county, $835,977.71. It is confidently expected by Commissioner Lyman that more than $21,000,000 will be collected during the fiscal year the law is in operation.

M. E. Ingalls for President.

Cincinnati, Aug. 22.—The Times-Star says that there is a movement to nominate E. Ingalls, president of the C. C. and Chesapeake & Ohio railroads, for the nomination of the national democratic party for president.

A FOUR-YEAR-OLD.

A four-year-old's a baby,
Whatever you do or say.
You may rig him out in a roundabout
And teach him the time of day;
As his muscles grow he will bluster and blow
Till you think him an army of men;
Until short of breath you may "love him to death"
And declare "he's his father again."
But, whether you will, he's a baby still,
Whatever you do or say.

A four-year-old's a baby,
Whatever you do or say.
He may run and shout and want to play out
In the yard the livelong day;
He may put on his hat and his coat and all that,
And button his shoes with a hook:
He may swagger and strut and pretend to be, but
No matter how big he may look
He's a baby still, whether you will,
Whatever you do or say.

A four-year-old's a baby,
Whatever you do or say.
You may call him a man, as a mother can,
Seventy times a day.
If he cries when he's hurt, all covered with dirt,
You'll gather him up in your arms,
Nor kisses refuse to cover the bruise
And quiet his tearful alarms.
For whether you will, he's a baby still
Whatever you do or say.

(Miss De T. Mutton and Bladder Sleeves discovered reclining on sofa, reading Yellow French Novel with picture on back Philips entering with tea-things.)

Miss De T. Mutton—I am not at home to any one but Maj. Blowzer; you understand, Philips?

Philip—Yes, miss, I understand. (Exit.)

Miss De T. Mutton (puts down novel on sofa and ruminates)—Yes, I'm sure he will come. I've managed mamma nicely. He asked so pointedly. He was so very— But why me instead of mamma? Surely he can't think—no, he cannot think that I take care of myself! It's years since I went anywhere without a chaperon. I—he— (Is not quite satisfied; gets up and goes to glass and preens and plumes herself, fusses out skirt, plucks at bladder sleeves: presses down flat curl in middle of forehead; smooths over bodice; notices she is looking anxious: looks pretty into glass: frowns for contrast; looks pretty again; says in dumb show: Yes, isn't it? Then again a little more: Yes, isn't it? Notices one cheek has wider surface of red than the other; thinks: "It is my cheek towards the fire—it does not matter." Realizes that it is the cheek away from the fire: adjusts with handkerchief; begins to try and see her back; fancies she hears some one and stops; tries to see it again; thinks she is looking dull; goes to table. drops eau-de-Cologne from scent bottle on lump of sugar, eats it; prepares another. Loud knocking below. Drops sugar and runs to window; peeps cautiously round blind runs back to sofa Notices yellow French novel with picture on back, thrusts it under cover of work-basket; runs for Waverley novel from book-case, gets back on sofa with smart dress, bladder sleeves, slippers, ankles, white flounce underskirt, etc.) (Enter Philips.)

Philips—Maj. Blowzer. (Enter Maj Blowzer.)

Maj. Blowzer (awkwardly)—Ah—how-dy-do, Miss De Trafford? (They shake hands.) I hardly hoped to find you at home on such a lovely afternoon I'm—

Miss De T. Mutton—Yes, isn't it?

Maj. Blowzer—'Fraid I'm disturbing your reading. Waverley, I see. (Wishes he had never come begging.)

Miss De T Mutton—Yes, I delight in Waverly, don't you It is my pet of all Sir Walter's. I'm never tired of reading it. (Sits sofa L.)

Maj. Blowzer—Yes, very much, yes; we used to do it at school. (Takes up book and sits uneasily.) Ah, this, yes, I see—Quentin Durward.

Miss De T. Mutton—That? O, yes; yes, that. But won't you put down your hat, Maj. Blowzer?

Maj Blowzer—Thanks, yes, thanks. (Tries to seem as if the idea was new to him Decides he will never go begging for bazars again.)

Miss De T. Mutton—Won't you have some tea, Maj Blowzer?

Maj Blowzer—O, thanks very much, yes, thanks.

Miss De T. Mutton—Sugar?

Maj. Blowzer—Please, yes, thanks. yes, thank you. (Realizes he must be calm.) I hope, Miss de Trafford, you have recovered from the fatigues of last night; you look very fresh, if I may say so.

Miss De T. Mutton (fears she has overdone it)—O! wasn't it delightful; and that last waltz with you, Maj. Blowzer! (Looks at him, accidentally drops lump of sugar, reaches over sugar basin for it, picks up lump charged with eau-de-cologne, puts it into tea, hands him cup.)

Maj. Blowzer—O, thanks! Yes, I remember; you were telling me all about a bazar you were helping with, awfully good of you, don't you know, I think, smells tea; tries to sniff at it without being noticed; tastes cautiously.)

Miss De T. Mutton (remembers she had on black satin and Philanthropy the night before; does a graceful laugh of three syllables)—O, no! I'm quite in love with bazars; have I given you enough sugar, Maj. Blowzer?

Maj. Blowzer—Quite, thanks, yes. (Coughs slightly: remembers to have heard of "scented tea," hopes he will never meet with it again. Looks about for excuse to set down cup.) Now, well, I suppose—this kind of thing—for instance, now—may I? (Puts down cup and takes silken cover from work-basket.)

Miss De T. Mutton (suddenly)—O, don't, please.

Maj. Blowzer—I beg pardon. (Sees open French novel with picture on back.) Ah-ha, I see, yes, well, perhaps we had better not—. (Laughs.)

Miss De T. Mutton—A novel by—

Maj. Blowzer—Yes, so I see, Miss de Trafford, I know it. (Laughing.) Ho! ho! I've read it myself, ho! ho! ho! twice, ho! ho! no! ho! Oh dear, and—ho! ho! ho! you'll excuse me, but—but Waverley, ho! ho! ho! ho! (Laughs, looks at her, feels in his element, thinks: "Come, this is all right.") Well, perhaps we had better cover it up again.

Miss De T. Mutton (Remembers when she first blushed; tries to recollect how she did it; fails.)—I am afraid mamma reads rather curious books. (Thinks she ought to push out her slipper and look at it. Does so.)

Maj. Blowzer (Looks at her and laughs; hopes he has not hurt her feelings; determines to make up for it. Moves easily to seat on sofa.)—My dear Miss De Trafford, I'm sure you must think it very strange in me to call after such a slight acquaintance like this, but you will remember that there are occasions when strict formalities may be excused. There was something that would not wait—I think you can guess what it is.

Miss De T. Mutton—(Thinks she ought to be silent, and looks gravely at her fingers and twiddles something in her lap. Reaches for scent bottle and twiddles it.)

Maj. Blowzer (Thinks she need not be so cut up at his reading the novel)—I wished to speak last night, but you know how difficult it is to manage such things at a large dance. (Remembers how he stood close beside her and looked searchingly for her through the ball-room, in order that he might take Katie Travers in to supper instead and be believed when he should explain how he hunted for her in vain.)

Miss De T. Mutton (softly)—Yes. (Remembers the same occasion and that she said in a loud voice, beside him, to a friend: "Oh, have you seen mamma?" but without drawing his attention from his keen quest of her.)

Maj. Blowzer (in a burst of unreserve)—Well, my dear Miss De Trafford, it is like this, we are getting up a bazar to help the fund in aid of the widow of the gunner killed last month, you remember? My wife is away—.

Miss De T Mutton—Your wife!

Maj Blowzer—Yes, she's away, and I promised her I would do what I could before she came back. The poor fellow was in my old battery; and I thought if you would be so kind as to give us the benefit of your help and experience it would—.

Miss De T. Mutton (loudly and rapidly)—O, I shall be delighted.

Maj. Blowzer—Now, that's very good of you; very kind.

Miss De T. Mutton (loudly and rapidly)—O, I shall be delighted, only too pleased, I'm sure; charmed; I'm so glad you came—so unfortunate—mamma—out—would have been delighted—.

Maj. Blowzer (taken aback and feeling for hat)—O, thanks; now that's awfully kind, don't you know—.

Miss De T. Mutton (still loud and rapid))—Don't please, no, I'm delighted—the opportunity—greatest possible pleasure—should never have forgiven you if you hadn't asked me.

Maj. Blowzer—Thanks—good of you—indeed. No, really—good-by, good-by. Thanks again—grateful, I'm sure; good-by. (Remembers that the White Hart is close at hand and he can get a drink at once. Exit.)

(Miss De T. Mutton rings bell, looks blankly at bell-pull, walks aimlessly about touching things, stares into glass L. without seeing herself, etc. Enter mamma.)

Mamma (in a clear ringing voice)—Did they send those cakes?

Miss De T. Mutton (stamping)—O, I don't know whether they've sent any cakes. Where have you been all the afternoon?—Black and White.

What Mohair and Alpaca Are.

Mohair is the fleece of the Angora goat, grown in the orient and at the Cape, and is the most lustrous fiber known. In its natural state it is white, and can consequently be dyed to any color. Alpaca is the fleece of the animal of that name, also of the goat family (llama is a near relation), and is grown in South America. In its natural state it is black, brown or piebald, with a very small proportion of white. Consequently it can only be dyed a darker color, generally black. Whenever, therefore, you see a luster dress which is lighter than dark gray, you may be sure it is mohair, especially if it has a peculiar sparkle which is something like that of a newly broken piece of lump sugar. Alpaca, being somewhat finer and softer than mohair, is mostly used for coat linings, but it is also made into dress goods in its natural gray. It was introduced and intended for linings, but was taken up by a whim of fashion for dresses and had a great run 30 years ago. Its popularity gave the name of alpaca in a rough and ready way to all bright goods, although most of them are made from mohair, and many of them from English wool. — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Cold Slaw Dressing.

The simplest is to add to two large tablespoonfuls of whipped sweet cream, two of sugar and twice that amount of vinegar with salt to taste. Again, a simple French dressing is good over cabbage. So is that made by beating the yolks of three hard boiled eggs to a paste, then seasoning with one small teaspoonful of French mustard, half a teaspoonful of salt and a pinch of cayenne pepper. After these ingredients are well mixed, gradually add, while stirring, enough vinegar to make the dressing the consistency of cream. Pour this over one pint of chopped or shredded cabbage.—Good Housekeeping.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. For this reason it is the only remedy with well-informed and progressive people everywhere, and so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Fig, stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

MOURNING GARB RENTED.

Novel Business Built Up by an Enterprising Dealer in Old Clothes.

Persons who are forced to undergo a sudden change of clothing because of the death of relatives, and who haven't the ready money to buy outright an entire outfit of black for brief use, have found a welcome assistance in their embarrassment in a man whose business is obscure, comparatively, and of recent origin, but who has an active trade.

The office of this man has a funereal aspect, filled as it is with heaps of somber garments, but its proprietor is anything but grave. He was, until lately, a dealer in old clothes, and was dismayed at the amount of competition. Everybody seemed to him to be dealing in that commodity.

A friend, short of cash, whose father died, borrowed a mourning outfit from him one day, paying a small sum for the loan. This transaction suggested to the dealer the idea of hiring out mourning dress as a business. He tried it, and soon found his peculiar trade well patronized.

He began to read death notices in the newspapers, and to send his agents to visit those whom he considered were not in extra good circumstances. Seven agents now act for him, being paid in commissions. Each has a regular circuit of streets marked out for his canvass.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York are requested to unite in sending three delegates and three alternates from each Assembly District to a State Convention, to be held at Buffalo, on Wednesday, Sept 16th, 1896, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates to be voted for at the ensuing general election, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.
(Signed) J. W. HINKLEY, Chairman.
August 7, 1896.

ASSEMBLY DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the Second Assembly District of Orange county are hereby requested to send delegates to a Democratic convention, to be held at the Assembly Rooms, in Middletown, N. Y., on the 5th day of September, 1896, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of selecting three delegates and three alternates to attend the Democratic State Convention, which will be held at Buffalo on Wednesday, Sept. 16th, 1896
WM H CRANE, Chairman Assembly Com.
Dated Aug. 15th, 1896

TOWN OF WAWAYANDA.

The Democratic electors of the town of Wawayanda are hereby requested to meet at the house of Wm. H. Green in Slate Hill, Thursday, Aug. 27th, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, to elect delegates to represent said town in the conventions now called and hereafter to be called and to transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting By order of
C. C. FULLERTON,
D. W. REEVE,
WM. H. DOANE, } Town Com.

The Democratic City Committee of Newburgh met, Thursday night, and adopted resolutions heartily endorsing Bryan and Sewall and calling on all Democrats to give the ticket united and earnest support.

Although the State Convention does not meet until Tuesday, Congressman Odell has already hied himself to Saratoga, where, in the absence of Chairman Hackett, he will take charge of the machine and see that it is in readiness for the touch of Platt's master hand.

Hundreds of ballots for Senatorial delegates have been taken in the Republican Convention in Delaware county. The balloting has been in progress for four days and the result has not been changed from that of the first ballot taken: John Grant, 12; A. C. Crosby, 10, C. A. Wheeler, 8; W. C. Gould, 8.

A few weeks ago, when the Treasury was being looted of its gold, the gold organs explained that the free silver scare was driving gold out of the country. Now that the tide has turned and gold is coming this way these same organs have to explain their explanation. And very bungling work they make of it.

The Herald is authority for the statement that President Cleveland favors the nomination of Senator John M. Palmer by the gold Democrats at their Indianapolis convention, and it is understood his "friends" will be on hand to urge his views on the delegates. Mr. Cleveland as a leader of the regular Democracy has been such a conspicuous failure that the bolters may well fear a hoodoo if he takes too active a part in directing the course of their piratical craft.

The one hope of the gold organs is that the drift of public sentiment in favor of free silver will change, but it is impossible for them to give a reason for this hope. There can be no change of sentiment unless the gold monopolists offer the people some substantial remedy for existing ills and they have nothing to offer but a perpetuation of the single gold standard, under which prices have steadily fallen until the great mass of producers are in sore distress and realize that they must seek deliverance from the evils that press them down.

A patient, who must make glad a doctor's heart by literal obedience of orders, as reported from Aurora, Ill. She is an invalid, and her physician had told her that when a certain pain came on she must stop wherever she happened to be and remain there until the pain left her. She was being moved in a carriage from her old residence to a new one, about a mile distant, when the pain came on and she stopped the carriage. This was a month ago, and the pain having continued she is still, obedient as she believes to the doctor's orders, in the middle of the road.

The Ball Family Picnic.

The annual reunion and picnic of the descendants of William Ball and Sarah Wells will be held in Mrs. Gonge's grove, at Campbell Hall, Wednesday, Aug 26th.

Putting the School Buildings in Order.

Considerable work is being done in and about the public school buildings, in order to have them in readiness for the opening of the schools, next month.

OUGHT TO STEP DOWN AND OUT

From the Newburgh Press.

At the Assembly-State Convention held recently in this city for the sole purpose of sending delegates to the State Convention which was held at Saratoga, contrary to the usual custom, a delegate to the Judiciary Convention was also named. The Press at the time protested against the course taken by the convention and also took the ground that we had well known Democrats in our city to represent us, and that Mr. Vanamee, whatever might be his personal merits, was a recent accession and should not have taken precedence of them. Time has shown the wisdom of our suggestions in this matter. The Democratic party in the First Assembly District now finds itself in the embarrassing position of being oblized to repudiate its chosen delegate or permit an avowed Republican to represent them at the Judicial Convention. Perhaps, however, Mr. Vanamee's sense of propriety and the fitness of things will impel him to resign from the position which he must feel to be inconsistent and incongruous. In case of his failure to see and act upon the amenities of the situation, the duty to retire him and select a delegate who will represent the Democratic sentiment of this district and be in hearty accord with the National platform and candidates, will be incumbent on the next State-Assembly District Convention which will shorly be held.

CHEAPER MONEY NOT AN EVIL.

From the Brooklyn Citizen.

The more the money question is considered the less weight will be attached to the cry that the Government is bound to abstain from doing anything likely to diminish the purchasing power of the currency. The inquiry will naturally suggest itself, why the Government is any more bound to keep up the price of money than to keep up the price of corn, or cotton or realty. What is there so everlastingly sacred about money that people should be debarred from the advantage of having it, as well as other commodities cheapened?

Every working man in the United States has been taught that he must reconcile himself to any lowering of wages that may be due to improved machinery, and that the great object of improvement is not to benefit the men employed in any particular line of work, but the public who purchase the commodity. It is now in order for workingmen to remind the special classes who are howling against the prospect of more abundant, and therefore cheaper money, that they must submit to the same principle.

THE ELECTION IN VERMONT.

From the Albany Argus.

As for Vermont, no one doubts the election of her Republican State ticket. The interest attaching to her September election is of a superstitious character. Practical politicans have noticed, since the war, that it has so happened that when Vermont has given over 25,000 Republican majority, the Republicans have elected the president that year; but that when she has given less than 25,000 the Democrats have elected the president. If, therefore, Vermont gives over 25,000 majority at her coming State election, the Republicans would under normal conditions have a right to be elated, and Mr. Bryan's supporters depressed, and vice versa; but it must not be forgotten that this is a most exceptional year, in which Mr. Bryan's hopes are based largely, not upon rainbow chasing in the East, but upon the West and South.

Cures Talk

"Cures talk" in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as for no other medicine. Its great cures recorded in truthful convincing facts from grateful men and women, constitute the most effective advertising. Many of these cures are marvelous. They have won the confidence of the people; have given Hood's Sarsaparilla the largest sales in the world, and have made necessary for its manufacture the greatest laboratory on earth. Hood's Sarsaparilla is known by the cures it has made—cures of scrofula, salt rheum and eczema, cures of rheumatism, neuralgia and weak nerves, cures of dyspepsia, liver troubles, catarrh—cures which prove

THE ORDER OF MULES.

Peculiar Anti-Crime Organization of Kentucky and West Virginia.

It Has Become a Terror to Murderers and Cattle Thieves and Evil-Doers of Every Description—Its Origin and Conduct.

Unquestionably the most unique order in the United States is the "Mules," a secret organization of farmers in this county and the several adjoining counties of this state and West Virginia. Organized just after the close of the war, and on somewhat the same plan as the regulators of the far west, or perhaps more after the fashion of the rangers of the Texas plains, the order has constantly grown in favor until now the membership is estimated to reach well on toward 3,000.

Following the close of the war there was for a number of years in the immediate neighborhood an alarming run of lawlessness. The principal occupation of a great majority of the back county communities appeared to be horse stealing and general thievery. Something had to be done to stop it, as the authorities were wholly unable to cope with the offenders. In this extremity the resourceful mind of one of the best known physicians in the county evolved the idea of an organization for the mutual protection of the farmers. The result was soon felt in the presence of the Mutual Protective society, of which only the most responsible farmers and citizens, regardless of occupation, were eligible to membership.

The first proclamation of the new order was a candid statement of its purposes and conditions, and a warning tersely worded for the benefit of all transgressors of the laws of the county and state. A promise of the early breaking up of the several bands of horse thieves then operating in this and the Big Sandy country was also made. This latter provision was the source of considerable sarcasm on the part of the gangs named, who resorted to the white cap manner of placarding their answers of defiance. When the first raid was made on the farmers' stock it was of a more general character than had ever before been attempted, presumably to show the small esteem in which the officers, and the lodge as well, were held.

The members of the order turned out en masse and speedily ran down several of the gang and so closely chased the leaders that they were compelled to flee to the mountains. Convictions soon followed, and the order became recognized as an important factor in the county government. Similar experiences followed, and the membership of the order increased at a rapid rate. New lodges sprang up in adjoining counties, and each community had a branch, with an organization and a code of signals sufficient to enable the warning of the entire membership to the field in the shortest possible order. Whenever a case of horse stealing was reported the order would turn out 400 or 500 strong and scour the whole region until the animals were recovered or the thief captured.

Other and similar offenses were given attention equally substantial. Under these conditions the gangs soon became scattered, their work most hazardous and the morals in general of the county as good as could be asked. Throughout the past 20 years the unceasing watchfulness and energy of the order have maintained the same effect in the mountainous country. Only recently the "Mules" turned out nearly 800 strong in Lawrence county to investigate the supposed murder of an Arab peddler from Cincinnati. They soon resolved the case into one of pure spitework, in which the victim was an innocent sheep, and the object the desire to cast a suspicion upon one of the natives as would cause him to leave the country. A warning was left publicly posted for the benefit of the conspirators. Down in Greenup they are still working on the mysterious case of the murder of one of their members whose body was found nearly two years ago in a creek with a rope around his neck and unmistakable evidence of violence. They will never leave the trail until something tangible is developed. Here in this county but a few months ago the order sent a representative almost to the Atlantic coast to bring back a man wanted for breaking the law. The man was produced for trial at the time originally appointed. Over in Wayne county, W. Va., two convictions were made at a recent term of court as a result of the order's work.

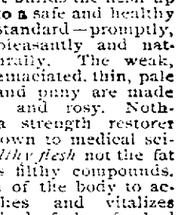
While the work of the order has been most acceptable, and most of the members are sincere in their intentions at their joining, it has also been made the tool of politics to some extent. Numerous men have become members simply to wield a little political influence over the order, to their personal benefit, or in the interest of their friends. Still, it is steadily growing, and surprisingly so in the towns along the river, where their hold formerly was very insignificant. The peculiar designation, "Mules," comes through the adoption some years ago of the outline of an attenuated mule as the emblem of the order.

Once a year the "Mules" hold a meeting of their grand lodge, and this will be held this year at Greenup, early in the coming month. Last year the meeting was held at Lockwoods, in Lawrence county, and it was estimated that 10,000 people were present during the two days' session. The order is yearly adopting more revised rules, and it will probably eventually emerge into a full-fledged secret society of the old-fashioned order. Though they still turn out en masse and ride over the country in the fashion generally accredited the moonshiners of the south, they are unalterably opposed to violence in any fashion and strictly adhere to the enforcement of the law along the ordinary lines.—Ashland (Ky.) Cor. Louisville Courier Journal.

TO PUT ON needed flesh, no matter how you've lost it, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It works wonders. By restoring the normal action of the deranged organs and functions, it builds the flesh up to a safe and healthy standard—promptly, pleasantly and naturally. The weak, emaciated, thin, pale and puny are made strong, plump, round and rosy. Nothing so effective as a strength restorer and flesh maker is known to medical science; this puts on healthy flesh not the fat of cod liver oil and its filthy compounds. It rouses every organ of the body to activity, purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood so that the body feels refreshed and strengthened. If you are too thin, too weak, too nervous, it may be that the food assimilation is at fault. A certain amount of bile is necessary for the reception of the fat foods in the blood. Too often the liver holds back this element which would help digestion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery stimulates, tones up and invigorates the liver, nourishes the blood, and the muscles, stomach and nerves get the rich blood they require.

Spent Hundreds of Dollars with no Benefit.

M. J. COLEMAN of 33 Sargent St., Roxbury, Mass., writes: "After suffering from dyspepsia and constipation with untold agony for at least 18 months, I am more than pleased to say that after using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' for one month, I was entirely cured, and from that day to this I do not know, thank God, what even a slight headache is. I paid a doctor on Tremont St., Boston, in one day (for his advice only,) the sum of $10.00 with $3.50 for medicine, and derived no benefit. I got more relief in one hour from your medicines, as far as my stomach was concerned, than from all the other medicine I used.



M. J. COLEMAN, Esq.

If any person who reads this is suffering from dyspepsia or constipation and will use your medicine as I have done, he will never regret it."

"DR. MILES,

Through His Nervine Is a Benefactor to Thousands."

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 6th, 1895, as follows:

"Five years ago I became so nervous that mental work was a burden. I could not rest at night on account of sleeplessness. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results. My son also takes it for nervousness with like never failing success. I have recommended it to many and it cures them. All who suffer from nerve troubles should try it. It is free from narcotics, perfectly harmless, and yet soothes and strengthens. Dr. Miles, through his Nervine is a benefactor to thousands." A. C. LEHMAN.

DIVING TORPEDO BOAT.

Description of One Recently Invented by J. P. Holland

Should It Prove a Success, the United States Will Probably Purchase the Exclusive Right to the Use of the Invention.

While aeronauts, such as Chanute, Langley, Maxim and others, are working together to solve the mysteries of mechanical flight another body of scientists and engineers is trying to fathom the science of submarine navigation. Every year one or more submarine boats are laid out on paper, and some of them are actually built. A few of the many models and "diving-boats" have been tested and found practicable.

The latest candidate for governmental favor is the submarine torpedo boat designed by J. P. Holland, who has been working on submarine navigation for a quarter of a century.

In 1887 he proved to the satisfaction of the navy department of the United States that his scheme was feasible, and to-day a boat is being built after the Holland design.

The vessel, says the Chicago Record, is cigar-shaped, and is 80 feet long. Its largest diameter is 11 feet, and it will have triple expansion engines capable of developing 1,800 horse power. Steam, electricity and compressed air will be used in the boat. The compressed air will be for the use of the crew when the vessel is submerged and for the automobile torpedoes.

The electric current will be used for power when the stored steam is used up during a submerged period of navigation and for light. The smokestack is of the telescopic order. When the vessel is above water, or "awash"—that is, partially submerged, the smokestack will be "housed" and the opening hermetically sealed.

When the smokestack is completely housed the residual pressure of the steam will drive the engines, for when water under pressure is heated it gives off steam for a considerable length of time. When this source of power gives out the boat will fall back on the storage batteries and electric motors.

When the vessel is floating on the surface, with its hull well above the water, it makes 13½ knots an hour; when it is awash the speed will be 12½ knots an hour, and 6½ knots an hour when submerged.

The boat will be propelled by triple expansion engines, working triple screws. The submergion is made in two ways—by means of horizontal rudders, which will cause the boat to dive when they are inclined, and also by screws, revolving in a horizontal plane at the bow and stern.

Resting on top of the smooth, cigar-shaped hull is an armored superstructure, which includes a conning tower. From the center of this superstructure rise the smokestack and air tube, both of them telescopic.

The boat will be able to sink 40 feet below the surface of the water, and the specifications require that when diving it shall reach a level of 20 feet below the surface in one minute, and when at rest it must be able to dive to that depth within 30 seconds.

If the boat is moving forward the inclination of the horizontal rudders at the stern will cause it to dip and dive, just as the old "Peacemaker" did.

If a boat is floating motionless on the water it can be submerged by the horizontal screws at the bow and stern. If these screw-propellers are worked in one or the other direction the vessel will sink, and can be maintained at any level or can be sent to the surface rapidly or slowly, as the commander desires.

In actual practice the boat will approach the war ship it intends to blow out of the water with only its smokestack and conning tower above the water, until it gets sufficiently close for the man in the conning tower to see the ship.

Then the smokestack will be drawn into the vessel, the cover will be clapped on and sealed and the vessel will dive to the required depth. It has been found that a boat cannot well be steered from a conning tower under water. For this reason the Holland boat is provided with a tube which will project up above the surface of the water when the vessel is submerged.

This tube will carry an inclined mirror, a prism which will reflect down into the conning tower an image of everything within the range of the glass, and thus the commander of the vessel will be able to watch the war ship and guide his own boat.

The boat will carry five automobile torpedoes, and provision is made for the escape of the crew in case of accident. The crew will be provided with buoyant diving suits or helmets, and a method of opening the hatch is devised, so that the men can escape in their diving suits if the boat is injured so that it will not rise to the surface.

THE ORANGE COUNTY CIRCUIT.

Close of the Most Successful Series of Race Meetings Ever Held in the County—Good Sport at Goshen, Yesterday—Four Events on the Card—The Bicycle Race.

The Orange County Horse and Road Improvement Association has reason to be proud of the success of its first season of racing. The circuit closed at Goshen, yesterday, after four meetings at Cornwall, Middletown, Port Jervis and Goshen, each of which was more successful in every sense than any member of the association anticipated. With the exception of a single day at Middletown, the weather was clear and even during the intense heat in this city the attendance was very large and such a list of entries is rarely seen.

The Orange county circuit is doubtless with us to stay. The association has demonstrated its ability to manage it and the people have shown their appreciation by liberal patronage.

MIDDLETOWN THE FASTEST TRACK.

While there was general satisfaction with all the tracks in the circuit it is gratifying to Middletowners to know that the best time was made on the Campbell track in this city, and this in spite of the fact that Polonius' great son, Page, with a record of 2:09¾, was not entered here. The fastest time at Cornwall was 2:17½ made by Lightning, who also made the best time in Port Jervis—2:17½. Page won a heat in Goshen, Thursday, in 2:16, but Lightning at Middletown won the third heat of the free-for-all race in 2:15¼ and Red Lake took the first heat in the 2:29 class in 2:15¾. Although Fred was only given a mark of 2:16¼ in this city, a dozen watches recorded his time as 2:14¾, the bad start being the excuse of the judges for giving the time at 2:16¼.

The crowd at Goshen, yesterday, is variously estimated at from 1,200 to 2,000 people.

2:20 PACING RACE.

The 2:20 pacing race was an interesting one. Red Lake was the favorite and sold at $10, and the field brought $6 and $7, but as in many other races the favorite was not a winner, that honor being carried off by Highland Lassie, who won very easily in three straight heats. Red Lake took second money and third money was divided between VanCott and Mazetti.

2:22 TROTTING RACE.

The 2:22 trotting race was also a very pretty one. This time the favorite, Legene, was a winner. He sold for $10 and the field brought the same amount, several horses in the field having admirers, who believed in their ability to beat the favorite.

Legene won in three straight heats, although he broke a wheel in the second heat. Senatress won second money, Sablehurst third, and Thelma fourth.

2:40 TROTTING RACE.

The 2:40 trotting race was a wearisome affair. Nellie Larue, a daughter of Millionaire, owned by Simon Walsh, of Montgomery, was the favorite. She won in three straight heats, coming under the wire in each at a jog. Her driver kept looking back nearly all the way up the home stretch as if inviting his followers to come on and give him a brush. Watson Sargeant's Estella G. did some excellent work and earned second money. Little Britton took third and Tyrolese fourth.

The wearisomeness of this race was wholly in the starting or rather the determination of some of the drivers to fire out the fastest horses before starting. Time after time the horses came up in a straggling crowd and it was not until a threat to fine every man who started ahead of the pole horse was made by Starter Mills that the horses got away in the first heat.

When the second heat was called a half dozen attempts were made to start when Little Britton threw a shoe and his owner was given fifteen minutes to put it on again. Then there was more monkey work and threats of $25 fines before a start was made. The third heat was a repetition of the others.

THE RUNNING RACE.

The fourth and last race of the meeting and of the circuit was the running race, half mile heats. There were four entries: Jake Shipley and Fox Hound, of Brighton Beach, who were ridden by colored jockeys; Frank E., belonging to James McKee, of Goshen, ridden by Scott, and King Arthur, owned by C. E. Casterline, of Florida, this county, and ridden by a boy named Griffin.

The horses would have started well but for King Arthur, who showed a disposition to run in the opposite direction from the others. When the word was finally given in the first heat King Arthur would not budge until the other horses were an eighth of a mile away and then he started out at a pace that would have counted for something if he had started even. As it was he saved his distance. He behaved in much the same way in the second heat, but after the others started concluded to go along with them, and with a few leaps was close behind Frank E., but was kept in a pocket by the other horses until near the finish and came in a good fourth.

Frank E. won first money and second money was divided between Jake Shipsey and Fox Hound. Frank E.'s time in the first heat was 32 seconds and 59½ seconds in the seconds.

THE TANDEM RACE.

The tandem bicycle race between Case Brothers, of Port Jervis, and Hock and Miller, of Goshen, was very closely contested. Hock and Miller won the first heat by about three feet and the last one by half that distance. The Port Jervis team won the second heat easily and it was generally believed could have taken the third heat but for the over confidence of the Case Brothers in their ability to pass the Goshen team in a burst of speed on the home stretch. They made a fine effort which won them hearty applause, but delayed too long in making the spurt. The time was 2:35½, 2:36¾ and 2:43.

A FREAK OF LIGHTNING.

How It Leaped and Played Through a Sullivan County Farm House.

From the Monticello Watchman.

On Sunday afternoon last, at about 5 o'clock, the residence of ex-Supt. of Poor Daniel Downs, about two miles east of this village, was struck by lightning. No material damage to property or person was done, but the mysterious force wandered around through the house in a highly eccentric and fantastic manner.

The bolt struck the lightning rod attached to the house, and apparently followed it until it reached one of the glass insulators, within about three feet of the ground. Here it changed its course at right angles with the rod, and entered the building by one of the screw fasteners used to hold the glass insulator. Before leaving the rod it shattered the insulator to fragments. It entered the parlor, leaving a clean and clear cut hole, as though made with a drill or auger. On the parlor floor it left its path in the shape of a piece of matting, burned to ashes. From the parlor it entered the dining room, ripping up a sliver in the floor three-quarters of an inch deep, the entire length of the room, and then descended into the cellar. Here it closed its work by tearing a milk table into splinters and throwing half a dozen pans of milk in every direction over the cellar bottom. The bolt at last buried itself in the paving of the cellar bottom.

None of the inmates of the house were shocked by the discharge, and were in fact unaware that it had struck the building until their attention was aroused by the sulphurous smell of the burning that followed the lightning's path. The thunder that accompanied the flash of lightning was not extremely heavy nor was the flash blinding. On the whole it was a mild thunderbolt, but still we suppose it carried death in its trail if life had come in contact with it.

THEIR PASSAGE DISPUTED.

A Young Couple While Driving Have An Unpleasant Experience.

A young gentleman and a young lady of this city went out driving one evening this week, but are now sorry they did it for it was their luck to encounter one of man's worst feared enemies, which, though it never does bodily harm, leaves a reminder of its ill will that is by no means pleasant.

It was an animal of the genus mephitis and it was sitting in the road. The gentleman did not see it or he would have given it as wide a berth as possible, and as the little fellow determined to dispute possession of the road with the horse and wagon, the result was that the wheels passed over it with the dire consequences that might be expected.

An Old Man's Shocking Crime.

Edward Brehm, sixty-eight years old, of the Beaver Brook neighborhood, in Sullivan county, was arrested last week, charged with criminal assault on his thirteen-year-old granddaughter. This charge was afterwards dropped and bastardy proceedings instituted. A clear case was made out and the old man was held in $1,000 bonds to pay $50 for expenses of confinement and $2.50 a week for the support of the child so long as it is a public charge.

John I. Blair's Ninety-fourth Birthday.

John I. Blair, of Blairstown, N. J., is ninety-four years old, to-day. He retains his mental and physical powers to a wonderful degree. He has built thousands of miles of railroads, has been president of sixteen railroad companies and has given $1,000,000 for educational purposes and an equal amount to the cause of religion. His fortune is estimated at $30,000,000.

Burglars broke into the market of O. L. Carpenter, in Port Jervis, Thursday night, and carried off two boxes of cigars, several boxes of sardines, a dozen cans of various goods and a pocketbook containing three dollars.

IN ANCIENT GOSHEN.

The Ladies of the Whist Club Give Their Dues to the Public Library—Other Local Notes—The Average District School in America.

From a Special Correspondent.

—The Ladies' Whist Club met at the home of Mrs. Perry Wisner, on Wednesday afternoon. At this meeting it was decided to devote the dues collected from members during the winter to the purchase of books for the Goshen Library. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. Chas. M. Vail, next Wednesday afternoon.

—Mrs. Grace Wright, who has been spending part of the summer at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Frost, has returned to her home in New York.

—The daily services at St. James' Church, which were discontinued during the intense hot weather, were resumed this week.

—The writer while reading one of Ian Maclaren's short stories was much struck with the following description of an old school house: "Some one with the love of God in his heart had built it long ago and chosen a site for the bairns in the sweet pine woods at the foot of the cart road that led to the upland farms. It stood in a clearing with the tall Scotch firs round three sides, and on the fourth a brake of gorse and bramble bushes through which there was an opening to the road. The clearing was the play ground, and in summer the bairns annexed as much wood as they liked, playing tag among the trees or sitting down at dinner time on the soft, dry spines that made an elastic carpet everywhere." We all know the average country district school house of our own land. Placed directly on the highway, often at the junction of two or three roads, and as far from any shade, or any place that might be a pleasant play ground for the children as possible and one cannot help but contrast it unfavorably with this delightful picture of the Scotch school house. Think of studying in summer in a building upon which the sun beats remorselessly all day, and which is enveloped with the dust from the highway. In the hot spring and early summer days the "bairns" of our countrymen must eat their lunch in the close school room or beside the road, while perhaps just far enough away to be unattainable are the leafy woods where the wild flowers are blossoming and birds singing; where the little bright-eyed squirrels are whisking about in the trees and along the tops of fences and where the cool brook winds its way under the trees. How these children must wish that "some one with the love of God in his heart" had chosen the site for their place of education.

KEPT THE CHANGE.

How a Middletowners Made $30 Very Easily.

A young man of this city walked up to the wheel of fortune at the Goshen races, Thursday afternoon, and laid a ten dollar bill on the table and asked the cashier for change. The wheel was going at the time and the bill fell on the "star green." The man at the wheel yelled "star green" at that moment and the attendant at the table dealt out fifty dollars to the young man, the "star" paying five to one when it wins.

The attendant had evidently not heard the young man's request for change, but supposed he had flashed the ten for a flyer on the "star." The young fellow "kept the change."
